131 Years of Goldhanger Parish Magazine

There has been a Parish Magazine since 1895 when the Revd. Frederick Gardner started it shortly after being appointed Rector at Goldhanger and there have only been a few breaks in publication, most notably during both World Wars.

Deadlines:

Submit articles, as PDF to preserve layout or as plain text in an email with any images attached, by midnight on the 15th of April. Please contact the editors if you have any questions about your article.

Submit advertising (including For Sale and Wanted) by midnight on the 13th of April please.

Magazine Editors: Stephen & Chris parishmag@goldhanger.org.uk

Advertising (for Magazine & Website) Mel advertising@goldhanger.org.uk

For Sale or Wanted - To list your items in the magazine the minimum donation is £1 per advert. If you would like to donate more it would always be welcome.

Please note: We cannot guarantee the delivery date of your magazine. Please bear this in mind when advertising functions at the beginning of the month.

Donations: Cheques made payable to Goldhanger Parish Magazine. You can also donate online through the Goldhanger website. If you would like to pay by BACS please contact the editors.

You can download the Parish Magazine in glorious technicolour each month, including back issues, at: <https://www.goldhanger.org.uk/parish-mag.html> - and the links work in the PDFs.

From the Editors

Thanks to all those lovely people who've popped a donation to the magazine through the door (or via a direct payment) - it's very much appreciated and keeps the magazine in a healthy state and will allow more colour pages when we get the chance!

If you enjoy a good read then there's the new Goldhanger Book Club to check out. We also have a presentation from The Cultural Engine at the Annual Parish Meeting in the Village Hall on the 8th - more details for both can be found elsewhere in this issue.

Thank you
Stephen & Chris

Village signs from the past

There used to be many shops and businesses in Goldhanger. If one went back far enough some of the locals would not have been able to read or write as there wasn't a proper school in the village until the 1870s, so graphic signs were once important. This month's cover has some examples of local signs from the more recent past, they are...

- C. J. Mann – shop in The Square in early 1900, it had a wheel hanging outside
- Goldhanger Post Office – located in several places. The sign is from the 1900s
- F. K. Norton – baker & grocer at 2 Fish St. up until the 1960s, previously Miller's
- H. T. Eve & Co. – at The Mill in 3-5 Fish St. in the late 1800s
- A. Emberson – butcher at 1A & 3 The Limes, Head St. from the 1930s to 50s
- Rex Page & Son – Old Rectory Farm and the Tithe Barn in Church St. in 1930s
- E. Lancelot Pledger – Cobbs farm cast-iron wagon sign from the 1800s
- Eagle sign – outside the Chequers when it was a Trumans pub in the 1970s
- Cricketers sign – outside the Cricketers Inn around 1900 to 1920

here are some signs and badges from even more recent times...

Ministry Team's Message for Easter 2026

On Ash Wednesday, as I was reading through the service, it suddenly came to me that the liturgy we use speaks to us in many and varied ways. Many of us I am sure, can think of several instances when the Easter liturgy has fitted into the different stages of our lives. These stages could be times when we have anticipated the birth of a new baby, or a family member's health had improved, or a relationship was reconciled. At other times, these seasons have felt out of line with our lives: after the death of a loved one, or when we realised that the habit we had hoped to change during Lent was just as persistently part of our personality! Some Easters we have been able to wear spring clothing to church; other times we have had to wear a winter coat due to the cold wind. Liturgy and life do not always line up neatly.

This basic fact reminds us of two complementary aspects of life. First, God is in control of how our lives unfold, and we are not. This goes for both the process of our personal spiritual growth and the healing of the world and its injustices. The second fact is the attitude that we bring to whatever is happening in our life at that moment, and whether we let God "in" or not, is a way that we participate in its unfolding.

For me, this past Lent was a season to do some weeding and ploughing of rocky ground. In Lent, my hope was to let God into those places within me that needed healing and repair. Of course, this is the work of a lifetime and never finished in one Lenten season. I sometimes wonder if this is why it is harder for us to enter fully into the celebration of Easter for a whole season, as we do more easily for Lent: the world is not perfect by Easter Sunday, and neither are we.

Easter, though, is still here. After all, Easter is the reality that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead and that life and love triumph over death and sin. Love conquers sin and death.

The way we are all experiencing Easter requires an intentional shift in focus, along with the celebration of family Communion and witnessing Baptisms and the welcoming of new members into the Church. Ministry brings an attitude of celebration to all the good that is happening in life, and in the life of each of our communities. This requires both finding ways to celebrate in community with others and shifting our focus towards our daily prayer.

Awaiting God's response is part of the tender care that we give to newly budding plants. We are like those tender plants for which God cares. In tranquil times and in harder times, Easter encourages us to pay attention to the bounty of God's goodness. God really does want to heal, restore, and provide good gifts for us all. Really. The truth is that Easter, no less than Lent, is a season of surrender. We are not in control, but Love is.

What do the Resurrection stories mean for each one of you this Easter? Or are you feeling like Peter, ready to jump into the water with exuberance, because Jesus is visible? Or are you like the women waiting at the empty tomb, still searching for Jesus? Whichever way you choose to celebrate Easter, the bounty of God's goodness is for everyone.

Alleluia, Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed, Alleluia!

May your faith be nourished and your hope increased. Happy Easter.

Revd Andrew Vince.

1916. As war rages on the Western Front, the Choral Society in Ramsden, Yorkshire has lost most of its men to the army. The Choral's ambitious committee, determined to press ahead, decides to recruit local young males to swell their ranks. They must also engage a new chorus master, and despite their suspicions that he has something to hide, their best bet seems to be Dr. Henry Guthrie (Ralph Fiennes) -- driven, uncompromising, and recently returned from a career in Germany. As conscription papers start to arrive, the whole community discovers that the best response to the chaos that is laying waste to their lives is to make music together.

Recipe of the month

Spinach and Ricotta Pasta

Preparation time

Less than 30 minutes

Cooking time

10 to 30 minutes

Serves

Serves 2

Ingredients

- 150g dried farfalle or tagliatelle
- 200g fresh spinach or defrosted frozen spinach
- 50g unsalted butter
- 1 garlic clove, finely chopped
- 125g ricotta cheese
- freshly grated nutmeg
- 1 tablespoon grated pecorino (or alternative vegetarian hard cheese)
- salt and freshly ground black pepper

Method

1. Cook the pasta according to the packet instructions, or until al dente. Drain and reserve a cupful of the cooking water.
2. If using fresh spinach, cook it with a splash of water in a saucepan for 1–2 minutes, or until wilted, then leave to cool. Squeeze all the liquid out of the spinach using your hands and roughly chop.
3. Melt the butter in a large frying pan. Once foaming, add the spinach, garlic, cooked pasta and a splash of the pasta cooking water and cook for 2–3 minutes, stirring frequently. Add more of the cooking water if needed. Add the ricotta and cook gently while mixing with two forks to break it up.
4. Season with the nutmeg, pecorino, salt and pepper and serve.
